What is the Five Day Academy?

The Five-Day Academy for Spiritual Formation is a program of Upper Room Ministries, providing an opportunity for clergy and laity to draw close to a loving God through a daily rhythm of prayer, worship, learning, and reflection. Each day includes teachings by gifted spiritual leaders to deepen our walk with God, periods of silence, morning and evening prayer, Eucharist, and an opportunity to share with and encourage one another.

Our Faculty

Sylvia Maddox

Sylvia Maddox is a retreat and workshop leader with an emphasis on prayer, spirituality, reconciliation, and Christian discipleship in ecumenical settings. Sylvia graduated from Baylor University and became a Baptist Missionary. She has a Masters of Education at the University of Texas. She is also a graduate of the Oblate School of Theology and a Masters of Theological Studies. Sylvia Co-authored with Mary Earle PRAYING WITH THE CELTIC SAINTS and SPIRITUAL COMPANIONS. She also worked with Mary Earle on numerous presentations and retreats. Her wider circle has included presentations at the Thomas Merton Society, Renovare Conference and many others. Sylvia has a love of music and outdoor hiking.

Lloyd Allen

Rev. Dr. Lloyd Allen is retired Sylvan Hills Professor of Church History and Spiritual Formation at Mercer University, McAfee School of Theology. His training for Christian ministry took place at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, which awarded him M.Div (1978) and Ph.D. (1984) degrees. Christian spirituality, and interfaith work are his main areas of interest. He has published a history of Maryland/Delaware Baptists and also, Crossroads in Christian Growth. He is currently working on a brief history of Christian Spirituality and a comparison of spiritual formation in various religious traditions. Off campus, Dr. Allen is a frequent faculty member for the Academy for Spiritual Formation and was executive director of the W.H. Whitsitt Baptist Heritage Society. He is also a spiritual director and regularly guides pilgrimages to Celtic lands and Israel.

An invitation to blessing...

Being an engaged Christian has never been easy. Today's culture expects and rewards expedience, material achievements, position and power over Christian values of humility, patience, kindness, and vulnerability. Divisive discourse surrounds us. What does it mean to be led by the Spirit in a time of doubt and anxiety?

Come, step away for a time apart, to discern how the roots and relevance of Christian spirituality guide us in fearful times. Use this time to find ways to equip yourself to be an engaged and steadfast follower of Christ for the world today.
